Church School News

This Sunday, the older children are learning about the Apostles' travels, focusing on the life of Thomas, and the younger children are learning about the life of Jesus. We invite children from preschool on up to join. If you have any questions or ideas about the program, or are willing to volunteer, please contact Jennifer Morgan at jmmorgan321@aol.com. If you have questions regarding the younger children's group, contact Jan Gilpin at jgilpin@gilp.net.

Project Bread

Congratulations and thanks, Kate Reeder, for taking part in the 51st Annual Walk for Hunger last Sunday! The Walk, sponsored by Project Bread, raised funds for the over 720,000 people in Massachusetts who are food insecure, meaning they do not know where their next meal is coming from. Project Bread supports food banks, farm and garden initiatives, health centers, and other anti-hunger programs across the state. To contribute to Project Bread and Kate's walk, go to: support.projectbread.org/goto/Kate_Reeder

Anne Frank and Me

Brendan McGee is starring in "Anne Frank and Me," a modern take on Holocaust deniers facing the reality of the Holocaust, with Vanilla Box Productions. Performances are May 10 & 11 at 7:30 pm and May 12 at 2 pm at the Jewish Community Center in Worcester.

Newton Festival of the Arts

St. John's will be participating in the Newton Festival of the Arts for the first three Sundays in May by opening its doors to the public to showcase our spectacular stained glass windows. We are looking for volunteers to help out, either by being here in person to welcome people or answer questions, or by helping to prepare materials that tell the story of our windows. If interested, you can either fill in the sign-up sheet in the Loring Room for whatever time slot (12-1:30 or 1:30-3:00) and date will work for you. Or you can speak with Alastair Battson or Jan Gilpin in church or contact Jan by email (jgilpin@gilp.net).

Work Day on Sunday, May 19

On Sunday, May 19, wear your jeans to church! After the 10:00 am service, the Vestry will provide lunch, and then we'll get to work. Rose will lead preparations for our spring garden and Brian will lead spring projects inside and outside (painting, light carpentry, etc). This is a great (and fun!) opportunity to spend 1-2 hours caring for our home together.
